New Delhi-110001, the 15th November, 1974,

Notification

28/7/74-AIS(II)-A

G. S. R. No. — In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the All-India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of the States concerned, hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Indian Administrative Service (pay) Rules, 1954, namely:—

1. (1) These rules may be called the Indian Administrative Service (pay) Twentieth Amendment Rules, 1974.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of January, 1973.

2. In the Indian Administrative Service (pay) Rules, 1954,—

(i) in rule 3, in sub-rule (1), for the words and figures «Junior Scale —

Rs. 400-400-500-40-700- With effect from the
-EB-30-1000 (18 years). first day of April, 1960.

Senior Scale —

(a) Time scale: Rs. 900 With effect from the (6th year or under) first day of April,
-50-1000-60-1600-50- 1960». —
-1800 (22 years).

the following words and figures shall respectively be substituted, namely:—

«Junior Scale —

Rs. 700-40-900 - EB-40 - With effect from the
-1100-50-1300. first day of January, 1973.

Senior Scale —

(a) Time Scale: Rs. With effect from the 1200 (6th year or first day of January, under) 50-1300-60- 1973.
- 1600-EB-60-1900 -
-100-2000.

Provided that a member of the Service may elect to continue to draw pay in the existing scale until the date on which he earns his next or any subsequent increment in the existing scale or until he vacates his post or ceases to draw pay in that scale.»;

(ii) in rule 3, for sub-rule (3), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

«(3). The pay of an officer who was a member of the Service on the first day of January, 1973, shall be refixed, as from that date, separately in respect of his pay drawn in a substantive or officiating capacity, in the following manner:—

In the case of an officer drawing pay upto and including Rs. 1800 in the existing scale —

(i) An amount representing five per cent of the basic pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 15 and a maximum of Rs. 50, should be added to the existing emoluments. If this results in a fraction of a rupee, the fractions of 50 paise and above should be rounded off to the next higher rupee and those below 50 paise should be ignored.

(ii) after the existing emoluments have been increased and computed as specified in clause (i), the pay shall be fixed in the revised scale at the stage equal to the amount so computed or, if there is no such stage in the revised scale, at the stage next above the amount so computed:

Provided that if the amount as computed under sub-clause (i) is less than the minimum of the revised scale, the pay shall be fixed at the minimum of that scale:

Provided further that if the amount as computed under sub-clause (i) is more than the maximum of the revised scale, the pay shall be fixed at the maximum of that scale:

Provided also that, except in cases where the pay is fixed at the minimum of the revised scale, if the revised pay as determined under this sub-rule, exceeds the existing emoluments by more than Rs. 100, the initial pay shall be fixed at the highest stage in the revised scale at which the revised pay payable does not exceed the existing emoluments by Rs. 100 and the difference, if any, between the existing emoluments plus Rs. 100 and the revised pay so payable shall be allowed as personal pay to be absorbed in future increases in pay.

Explanation I. — For the purposes of this sub-rule the existing emoluments shall comprise the following: —

- (i) Basic pay in the time scale.
- (ii) Dearness Allowance.
- (iii) Dearness pay.
- (iv) Interim reliefs.

Explanation II. — Dearness pay, dearness allowance and interim reliefs aforesaid shall be those appropriate to the basic pay.

Explanation III. — 'Existing Scale' in relation to an officer means the time scale applicable to the officer (or, as the case may be, personal scale applicable to him) immediately prior to the 1st day of January, 1973, whether in a substantive or officiating capacity.

Explanation IV. — 'Revised Scale' in relation to an officer means the appropriate time scale provided in sub-rule (1) of rule 3.

Explanation V. — Where the existing emoluments, together with personal pay, if any, exceed the pay fixed in the revised scale in the case of an officer, the difference shall be allowed as personal pay to be absorbed in future increases in pay.

Explanation VI. — Where in the fixation of pay under clause (ii) the pay of officers drawing pay at more than five consecutive stages in an existing scale gets bunched, that is to say, gets fixed in the revised scale at the same stage, the pay in the revised scale of such of these officers who are drawing pay beyond the first five consecutive stages in the existing scale shall be stepped up to the stage where such bunching occurs, as under, by the grant of increment(s) in the revised scale in the following manner, namely: —

(a) for officers drawing pay from the 6th upto the 10th stage in the existing scale — By one increment.

(b) for officers drawing pay from the 11th upto the 15th stage in the existing scale, if there is bunching beyond the 10th stage — By two increments.

(c) for officers drawing pay from the 16th upto the 20th stage in the existing scale, if there is bunching beyond the 15th stage — By three increments.

If by stepping up of the pay as above, the pay of an officer gets fixed at a stage in the revised scale which is higher than the stage in the revised scale at which the pay of an officer who was drawing pay at the next higher stage or stages in the same existing scale is fixed, the pay of the latter shall also be stepped up only to the extent by which it falls short of the former.

Explanation VII. — Where in the fixation of pay under clause (ii), the pay of an officer, who, in the existing scale was drawing immediately before the 1st day of January, 1973 more pay than another officer junior to him in the same cadre, gets fixed in the revised scale at a stage lower than that of such junior, his pay shall be stepped up to the same stage in the revised scale as that of the junior».

(iii) Below clause (i) of sub-rule (1) of rule 5, the following proviso shall be added, namely: —

"Provided that increments falling due after the 1st November, 1973 shall accrue on the first day of the month in which they would have accrued.";

(iv) Below clause (ii) of sub-rule (1) of rule 5, for the words "Provided that", the following shall be substituted, namely: —

"Provided that increments falling due after the 1st November, 1973, shall accrue on the first day of the month in which they would have accrued:

Provided further that";

(v) In rule 5, for sub-rule (3A), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely: —

"(3A) The next increment of a member of the Service whose pay has been refixed under sub-rule (3) of rule 3 shall accrue to him on the date on which it would have accrued in the time scale applicable to him immediately before the first day of January, 1973.

Note 1. — Increments falling after 1st November, 1973, will be drawn on the first of the month in which it would have accrued.

Note 2. — In cases where the pay of an officer is stepped up in terms of Explanation VI below sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) of sub-rule (3) of rule 3, the next increment shall be granted on the completion of qualifying service of 12 months from the date of stepping up the pay in the revised scale.

Note 3. — In cases other than those covered in Note 2, the next increment of an officer, whose pay is fixed on the first day of January, 1973, at the same stage as the one fixed for another officer, junior to him in the same cadre and drawing pay at a lower stage than his in the existing scale, shall be granted on the same date as admissible to his junior, if the date of increment of the junior happens to be earlier.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this rule, increment shall be construed to mean stages in the time-scale and not necessarily actual increases in pay (that is to say, where an increment in any scale is not annual, the increment shall be construed as carrying as many stages as the number of years of service required to be rendered for earning an increment).";

(vi) For Schedule I to the said rules, the following Schedule shall be substituted, namely:—

Explanatory Memorandum

The Central Civil Services (Revised Pay) Rules, 1973, were issued to implement the recommendations made by the Third Central Pay Commission in respect of the pay scales of Class II, Class III and Class IV employees. They were given effect to from the 1st January, 1973. Government have since broadly accepted, with some modifications, the recommendations of the Third Central Pay Commission regarding the pay scales in Class I Services/posts and the All-India Services and have decided that, except in respect of revision of pay or scales of pay of posts which have been upgraded to Rs. 3,000 (fixed) or above, the date of effect of revision of pay scales in Class I Services/posts and the All-India Services shall be the same as for employees in Class II to Class IV, namely, the 1st January, 1973. The Indian Administrative Service (Pay) Rules, 1954, are, therefore, being amended accordingly.

(No officer is likely to be adversely affected by this Notification being given retrospective effect).

Notification

28/10/74-AIS(II)-A

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the All India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of the States concerned, hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Indian Police Service (Pay) Rules, 1954, namely:

1. (1) These rules may be called the Indian Police Service (Pay) Fifth Amendment Rules, 1974.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the 1st January, 1973.

2. In the Indian Police Service (Pay) Rules, 1954—

In rule 3, in sub-rule (1) for the words and figure “Junior scale —

Rs. 400-400-450-30-600-35-670-EB-35-950 (18 years).

Senior scale —

(a) Time scale — Rs. 740 (6th year or under) — 40-1100-50/2-1250-50-50-1300 (22 years)” the following words and figures shall be substituted, namely:—

“Junior scale — Rs. 700-40-900-EB-40-1100-50-1300

Senior scale —

(a) Time scale — Rs. 1200 (6th year or under) — 50-1700

Provided that a member of the Service may elect to continue to draw pay in the existing scale until the date on which he earns his next or any subsequent increment in the existing scale or until he vacates his post or ceases to draw pay in that scale”;

(ii) in rule 3, for sub-rule (3), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(3) The pay of an officer who was a member of the Service on the first day of January, 1973, shall be refixed, as from that date, separately in respect of his pay drawn in a substantive or officiating capacity, in the following manner:—

(a) In the case of an officer drawing pay upto and including Rs. 1800 in the existing scale —

(i) An amount representing five percent, of the basic pay, subject to a minimum of Rs. 15 and a maximum of Rs. 50, should be added to the existing emoluments. If this results in a fraction of a rupee, the fraction of 50 paise and above should be rounded off to the next higher rupee and those below 50 paise should be ignored.

(ii) after the existing emoluments have been increased, and computed as specified in clause (i), the pay shall be fixed in the revised scale at the stage equal to the amount so computed, or, if there is no such stage in the revised scale, at the stage next above the amount so computed:

Provided that if the amount so computed under sub-clause (i) is less than the minimum of the revised scale, the pay shall be fixed at the minimum of that scale:

Provided further that if the amount as computed under sub-clause (i) is more than the maximum of the revised scale, the pay shall be fixed at the maximum of that scale:

Provided also that, except in cases where the pay is fixed at the minimum of the revised scale, if the revised pay as determined under this sub-rule, exceeds the existing emoluments by more than Rs. 100, the initial pay shall be fixed at the highest stage in the revised scale at which the revised pay payable does not exceed the existing emoluments by Rs. 100 and the difference, if any, between the existing emoluments plus Rs. 100 and the revised pay so payable shall be allowed as personal pay to be absorbed in future increases in pay.

Explanation I — For the purposes of this sub-rule the existing emoluments shall comprise the following: —

- (i) Basic pay in the time scale.
- (ii) Dearness Allowance.
- (iii) Dearness Pay.
- (iv) Interim reliefs.

Explanation II — Dearness pay, dearness allowance and interim reliefs aforesaid shall be those appropriate to the basic pay.

Explanation III — 'Existing Scale' in relation to an officer means the time scale applicable to the officer (or, as the case may be, personal scale applicable to him) immediately prior to the 1st day of January, 1973, whether in a substantive or officiating capacity.

Explanation IV — 'Revised Scale' in relation to an officer means the appropriate time scale provided in sub-rule (1) of rule 3.

Explanation V — Where the existing emoluments, together with personal pay, if any, exceed the pay fixed in the revised scale in the case of an officer, the difference shall be allowed as personal pay to be absorbed in future increase in pay.

Explanation VI — Where in the fixation of pay under clause (i) of the pay of officers drawing pay at more than five consecutive stages in an existing scale gets bunched, that is to say, gets fixed in the revised scale at the same stage, the pay in the revised scale of such of these officers who are drawing pay beyond the first five consecutive stages in the existing scale shall be stepped up to the stage where such bunching occurs, as under, by the grant of increment(s) in the revised scale in the following manner, namely: —

(a) for officers drawing pay from the 6th upto the 10th stage in the existing scale — By one increment.

(b) for officers drawing pay from the 11th upto the 15th stage in the existing scale, if there is bunching beyond the 10th stage — by two increments.

(c) for officers drawing pay from the 16th upto the 20th stage in the existing scale, if there is bunching beyond the 15th stage — by three increments.

If by stepping up of the pay as above, the pay of an officer gets fixed at a stage in the revised scale which is higher than the stage in the revised scale at which the pay of an officer who was drawing pay at the next higher stage or stages in the same existing scale is fixed, the pay of the latter shall also be stepped up only to the extent by which it falls short that of the former.

Explanation VII. — Where in the fixation of pay under clause (ii), the pay of an officer, who, in the existing scale was drawing immediately before the 1st day of January, 1973, more pay than another officer junior to him in the same cadre, gets fixed in the revised scale at a stage lower than that of such junior, his pay shall be stepped up to the same stage in the revised scale as that of the junior.

(b) The pay of an officer drawing basic pay exceeding Rs. 1800 in the existing scale shall be fixed at the stage in the revised scale which is equal to his basic pay in the existing scale plus dearness allowance drawn by him at the rates in force on 31st December, 1972, or if there is no such stage, the stage next below such aggregate plus personal pay equal to the difference to be absorbed in future increases in pay. But if the minimum pay of the revised scale is more than the pay admissible under this clause, the pay should be fixed at the minimum of the revised scale."

(iii) Below clause (i) of sub-rule (1) of rule 5, the following proviso shall be added, namely: —

"Provided that increments falling due after the 1st November, 1973 shall accrue on the first day of the month in which they would have accrued";

(iv) Below clause (ii) of sub-rule (1) of rule 5, for the words "Provided that", the following shall be substituted, namely: —

"Provided that increments falling due after the 1st. November, 1973 shall accrue on the first day of the month in which they would have accrued:

Provided further that";

(v) in rule 5, for sub-rule (3A), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely: —

"(3A) the next increment of a member of the Service whose pay has been fixed under sub-rule (3) of rule 3 accrued in the time scale applicable to him immediately before the first day of January, 1973.

Note 1. — Increments falling after 1st. November, 1973 will be drawn on the first day of the month in which it would have accrued.

Note 2. — In cases where the pay of an officer is stepped up in terms of Explanation VI below sub-clause (a) of sub-rule (3) of rule 3, the next increment shall be granted on the completion of qualifying service of 12 months from the date of stepping up of the pay in the revised scale.

Note 3. — In cases other than those covered in Note 2, the next increment of an officer, whose pay is fixed on the first day of January, 1973 at the same stage as the one fixed for another officer junior to him in the same cadre and drawing pay at lower stage than his in the existing scale, shall be granted on the same date as admissible to his junior, if the date of increment of the junior happens to be earlier.

Explanation: — For the purposes of this rule, increments shall be construed to mean stages in the time-scale and not necessarily actual increases in pay (that is to say, where an increment in any scale is not annual, the increment shall be construed as carrying as many stages as the number of years of service required to be rendered for earning an increment)".

(vi) For Schedule I to the said rules, the following Schedule shall be substituted, namely:—

Explanatory Memorandum

The Central Civil Services (Revised Pay) Rules, 1973, were issued to implement the recommendations made by the Third Central Pay Commission in respect of the pay scales of Class II, Class III and Class IV employees. They were given effect to from the 1st January, 1973. Government have since broadly accepted, with some modifications, the recommendations of the Third Central Pay Commission regarding the pay scales in Class I Services/Posts and the All India Services and have decided that, except in respect of revision of pay, or scales of pay of posts which have been upgraded to Rs. 3000 (fixed) or above, the date of effect of revision of pay scales in Class I Services/Posts and the All India Services shall be the same as for employees in Classes II to IV, namely, the 1st January, 1973.

The Indian Police Service (Pay) Rules, 1954 are therefore, being amended accordingly.

(No officer is likely to be adversely affected by this Notification being given the retrospective effect).
